A Señora Lucas,

my first year in Spanish has been thrilling, as well as adventurous. The subject has been very interesting.
You have been a superb teacher.
I have been an excellent student.
All "A's" and 1 "B".

I know that I have a nasty attitude and should learn to keep quiet sometimes but not right now.

Seriously I am grateful to you for everything
that you have taught me.
You can't realize how much I appreciate you.

Remember me always
and I shall remember
you.

Sempre,

Deborah,

THE STARS OF OUR GOLDEN YEARS

As we, the senior class of 1966, review our past galaxies, we behold our golden years. These constellations were fixed with the stars of joy, sorrow, challenge, and accomplishment. Join us now in the parade of our various stars.

In August 1963, the division of our first galaxy was the result of two separate freshmen classes, one at Hillside and the other at Whitted.

The formation of our first constellation began with the leadership of Jeanette Burnette, President of the student body at Whitted, and Linda McAuley, President of the freshman class at Hillside. In the "Mirror" two radiant stars appeared: Alonzo Speight and Deborah Durham, editor and co-editor. The torch of the National Junior Honor Society was placed in the hands of a bright young cluster of stars: Noma Bennett, Jeanette Burnette, Henry Blake, Linda Boone, Marilyn Davis, John Dixon, Michael Hayes, Ada Fisher, Michael Geer, Joyce Gilchrist, Shirley Holder, Reginald Jenkins, Beverly Johnson, Judy Johnson, Retella Jones, Douglas Lunsford, Shelton Barrett, Willie McDonald, Eva McKay, Eric Moore, Barry Parker, Rosetta Scott, Barbara Smith, Gloria Newkirk, Alonzo Speight, Eltona McNair, Ethel Richardson, Gilda Hedgepeth, Linda McAuley, James Stewart, William McLaughlin, Rhonda Mangum, Beverly Washington, Jinetta Watson, and Deborah Watts.

Some gained stardom through basketball: George Outlaw, Marvin Allen, Frank Brown, Daniel McLaurin, William Harris, and Gregory Monroe. Others appeared as track stars: Anthony Ford, George "Tippy" White, James "Pop" Hairston, and Reginald Dark. Our lone football star was Johnny Steele, cheered by Barbara Smith, Shirley Holder, Dolly Smith, and Diane Durham. Crowning our first constellation were Reginald Jenkins, Linda McClinton, and Eric Moore, the highest ranking students in our freshman class.

We see the glories of two galaxies uniting to form our sophomore constellation under the leadership of Eric Moore and Linda Boone. The stars of the National Honor Society remained constant. Ervin Allen, Jackie McNeill, David Nickerson, and Wilbert "Bo Bo" Watson took their places among the stars of Hillside's football team. George Outlaw was selected as a Varsity basketball player. We see something new among the stars: a girl's track team! Kathryn Jordan, Dollie Smith, Barbara Smith, Barbara Alston, Diane Durham, and Beverly Washington were the "Cinderellas." Thus we fixed this constellation forever in our memories.

We were guided through our third galaxy by Ronnie Brandon and Dollie Smith. The stars of the National Junior Honor Society graduated to the National Honor Society. In the automotive competition Tezell Couch placed first in the state and second in the nation. Additional stars to the Hornet football team were Ralph Rogers, James Pasley, Thomas Covington, Shelton Barrett, Calvin Rogers, Benjamin Fletcher, Robie Coffin and Henry Blake. Clyde Lockhart was trainer. The 4-A All-State Basketball Champions of 1964-65 were William Harris, Michael Hayes, Daniel McLaurin, Gregory Monroe, James Pasley, Marshall Hill, and Hollis Vines, with George Outlaw as co-captain of the team. The "Cinderellas" of our junior year were David Alston, Anthony Ford, and James Reaves. James Reaves, Barry Parker, John Poole, Bruce Weaver, and Richard Davis staked their claims to stardom with the baseball team. Swinging on a star with their tennis rackets were Perry Justice, James Stewart, and Curtis Brown. Stars of the stage were Gloria Scott, David Nickerson, Andre Talley, Douglas Lunsford, Ervin Allen and Michael Jones. Eric Moore and Linda McClinton served as chief marshals for the 1965 Commencement Exercises. The Junior-Senior Prom was the starlight of the year. The illusion of a Roman Holiday was magnificently created for the crowning of Gail Owens as "Miss Junior Sweetheart." Junior Waltzers were Janet Overton, Linda Tedder, John Henderson, James Royster, Charlotte Johnson, Noma Bennett and Ronnie Brandon. We truly glowed, as we had lived up to our motto, "The reward of a thing well done is to have done it."

The forming of our fourth constellation began with John Dixon and Jeanette Burnette, leading the student body as President and Vice-President. The next stars to loom forth were President and Vice-President of the senior class--Douglas Lunsford and Gilda Hedgepeth. Bright stars reappeared with the installation of the National Honor Society. They included Deborah Watts, Rhonda Mangum, Ada Fisher, Rosetta Scott, Michael Geer, Henry Blake, Beverly Johnson, Barbara Smith, Alonzo Speight, James Stewart, Beverly Washington, Linda McClinton, Eric Moore, Kathryn Jordan, Noma Bennett, Catherine McDonald, Retella Jones, Douglas Lunsford, John Dixon, Linda Boone, Gilda Hedgepeth, Eva McKay, Reginald Jenkins, Barry Parker, William McLaughlin, Linda McAuley, Marilyn Davis, and Shirley Holder.

Our basketball stars were George Outlaw and William Harris serving as co-captains. Football stars Jackie McNeill and Wilbert Watson were chosen as co-captains for 1965-66. Additional stars were Anthony Ford, Larry Peace, Richard Davis, Johnny Steele, Henry Blake, and Ervin Allen. Ronald Snipes became an added star to the track team. Tony Ford served as captain. Cheering the illustrious Hornets to victory were Sandra Greene, Anne Bibby, Johnnie Mae Brown, Barbara Smith, Diane Durham, and Beverly Washington. The most gala affair of the year was the crowning of Gilda Hedgepeth as Miss Hillside for 1965-66. Her Maids of Honor were Gladys Braxton and Anne Bibby. A special runway was erected so that all might witness the crowning of her charm, grace, and beauty. The Homecoming activities consisted of selecting Peter Joyner, III, as Mr. Irresistible Hornet, Rag Day, Blue and White Day, the bonfire, and the Homecoming Extravaganza. Anne Maria Bibby was crowned Miss Homecoming. Attending her were Gladys Braxton and Linda Jefferys. The Chronicle was edited by Ronnie Brandon, Noma Bennett, and Andre Talley. Chief stars of the Yearbook Staff were Alonzo Speight and Linda McClinton. On November 23, 1965, the senior class play "Dino" was presented with Frederick Robinson as the star. Others participating were George Jones, Gloria Roberts, Deborah Williams, Anne Bibby, Ronnie Brandon, Bruce Weaver, Dollie Smith, Eric Moore, Carl Adams, Ronald Snipes, Denise Best, Doris Prince, Claudette Free, Joyce Samuels, Marilyn Davis, Lavonda Hall, George White, Wilbert Watson, Johnny Lester, Constance Roberson, Ethel Richardson, Yvonne Davis, Josephine Bullock, Chester Roberson, Eltona McNair, and James Pasley. Musical stars of the year were Wallace Taylor, Patricia Reaves, Lana McClary, Patricia Witherspoon, Gerald Garner, William McLaughlin, Haral Greene, James Toomer, Peter Joyner, Michael Geer, and David Nickerson.

Deborah Chase Watts and Anne Bibby made our constellation especially resplendent with their gleanings from the Governor's School.

Each constellation has a definite period when it reaches its zenith, and so we graduate; we put our golden years behind us; we reach for other atmospheres to set our stars anew.

STARS TO VICTORY

This school year the 1965-66 Hornet Football Team opened its campaign by playing host to our "country-cousins", Merrick-Moore. This game ended in a 6-6 deadlock.

Over all, our husky, stinging Hornets finished with a successful season. They won three games, tied two and lost three.

The co-captains of the Hornet Grid were: Jackie McNeil, who made the All State Team, won most Valuable Lineman award, the captain of the Eastern All Star Shrine Team, and "BoBo" Watson was also chosen as a member of the Eastern Shrine Team.

Other remarkable senior players were: Ervin Allen, James Pasley, Benjamin Fletcher, Thomas Peace, Henry Blake, David Nickerson, Anthony Ford, James Williams, Richard Davis, Thomas Covington, Darrell Belvin, Shelton Barrett and James Alston.

Our deep appreciation goes to Herbert Criss and Woodrow Walston who were such dependable statisticians.

Many thanks are extended to the many, many Juniors and Sophomores who helped tremendously to make those unforgettable victories possible.

Cynthia Mebane

A LOOK AT THE STATE 4A CHAMPIONS

The Hillside High School Basketball Team, lead by co-captains George Outlaw and William "June" Harris, began defending its State 4A Championship on December 1, 1965, against Little River High School. The Carl Easterling coached Hornets set a school scoring, winning by a margin of 138-170.

The Mighty Hornets have scored over 100 points in six out of the 10 games compiling an average of 107.8 points per game.

Top scorers for the team are John "Goat" Bullock 23.1, Michael Hayes 16.8, William Harris 15.8, George Outlaw 13.6, Gregory Monroe 9.1, and Daniel McLaurin 9.0. Other outstanding senior players were Marshall "Tinsley" Hill and Larry Crawford.

The services of Woodrow Walston, John Dixon, George White, and Eric Moore, as manager, trainers and statisticians are greatly appreciated.

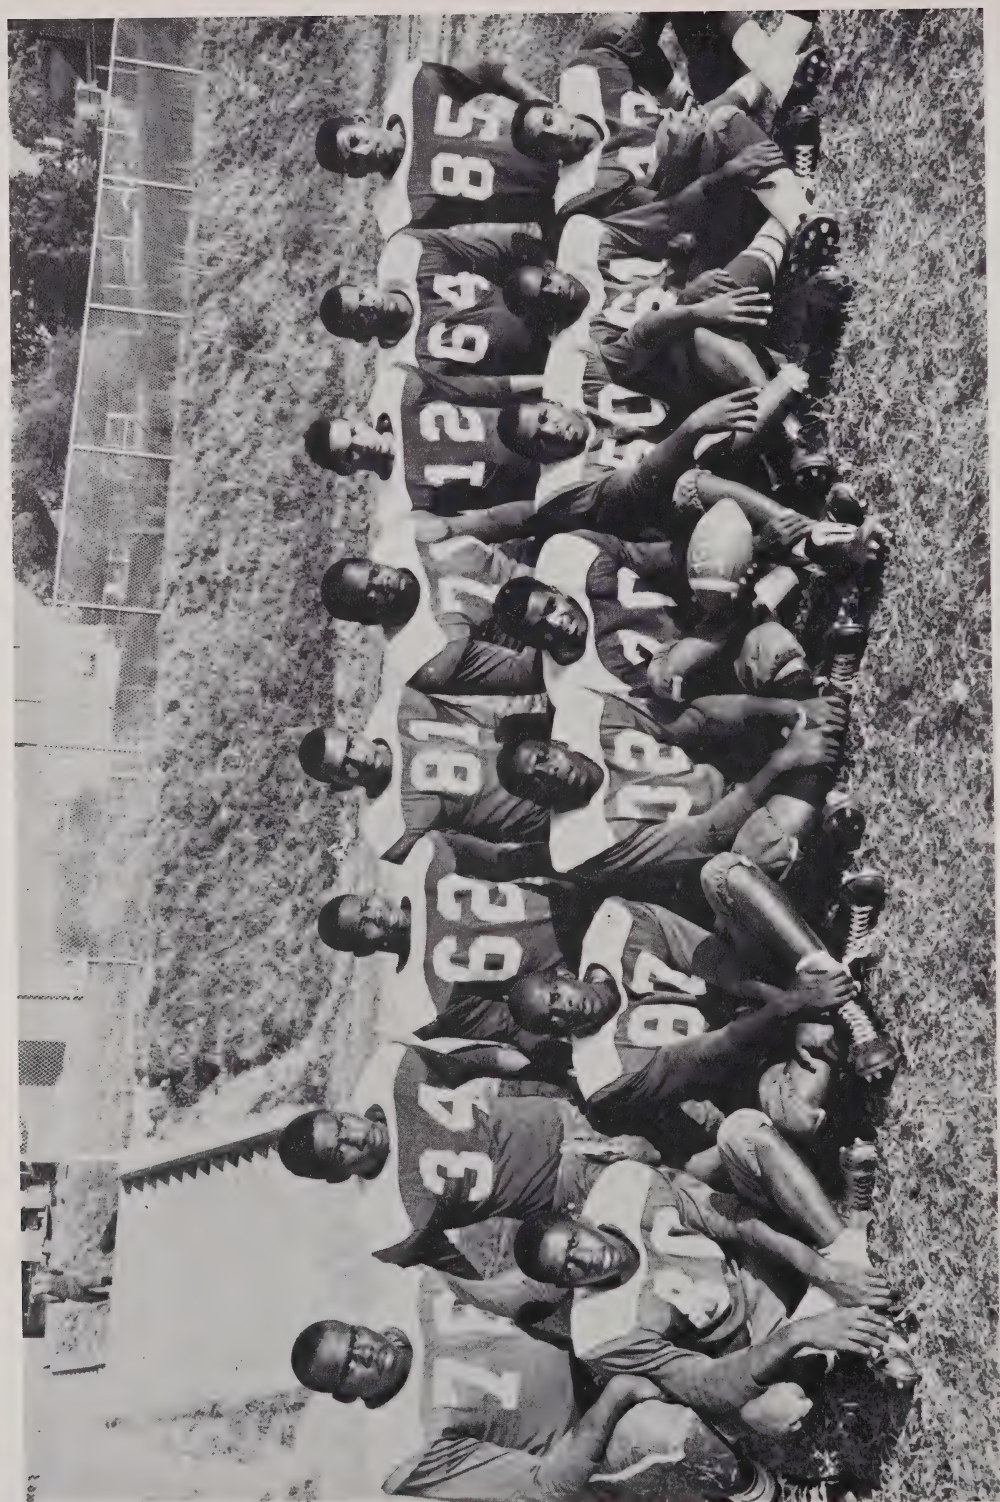

We, Cynthia and Eric, feel that the class of 1966 has the greatest basketball team ever. They are indeed Stars of Our Golden Years.

CAREERS Unlimited.....

More and more people are buying life insurance to assure their financial security. As a result of this growth, few, if any, businesses in America offer a wider variety of employment for well-qualified young men and women. For example, North Carolina Mutual has in its employment over fifty job categories: lawyers, doctors, executives, salesmen, managers, accountants, technicians, stenographers, clerks, typists, and food service workers. Whatever your field or specialization, there could well be a rewarding career for you in life insurance.

Congratulations and Best Wishes to the Seniors
